

Section 4(1)(b)(vii) of RTIA 2005

The particulars of any arrangement that exists for consultation with, or representation by, the members of the public in relation to the formulation of its policy or implementation thereof:

Schemes are conceptualized at the Field level and during their formulation the people who are expected to benefit from the scheme are always consulted. In case of schemes involving individuals there is always prior consultation. Public representatives and community leaders are consulted in case of those schemes implemented for the benefit of the whole community.
